

How to access the Computer Science servers from a MAC

- In a MAC OS, open a new terminal (this can be done by typing in “terminal” in Spotlight).
- To connect to the server, type in the following command:
 “ssh -x your_user_name@cs.uwindsor.ca”
 where your_user_name is your UWinId
- Type in your password when prompted.
- To disconnect, type in “exit”

How to transfer files to the Computer Science servers from a MAC

- In a MAC OS, open a new terminal (this can be done by typing in “terminal” in Spotlight).
- Connect to a CS server in sftp mode by entering the following command:
 “sftp your_user_name@cs.uwindsor.ca”
 where your_user_name is your UWinId
- Type in your password when prompted.
- To transfer a file from your MAC to the CS server: type in the command “put ” followed by the name of the file.
- To transfer a file from the CS server to your MAC: type in the command “get ” followed by the name of the file.
- To disconnect, type in “exit”